S.M. Stomps THS Spikers In BL Debut

By JERRY WESTMORELAND
Torrance High's highly appraised tracksters fell at the feet of another great team from Santa Monica on the Vikes' speedway Friday by a humble 73 1/2 - 30 1/2.

For the third consecutive meet, Torrance has bowed to opponents after taking their first four foes in on-league competition. Samohi was THS's first league opposer.

Bob Boss's 61" jump over the cross-bar prevented Samohi from cleaning up on the blue ribbons.

Coach Vern Wolf has had a week to recondition his team and heal the wounds of a few for the El Monte Relays to be held tomorrow.

The Bees and Cees were similarly slaughtered in their class. Torrance's next league meet is with Inglewood on April 2.
